CONTENTS

No. 1 SEPTEMBER 1955

ARLINE D. DEITCH AND GABRIEL C. GODMAN. The application of a freezing-substitution method of fixation to tissue culture preparations. Sixteen figures 1

MALCOLM R. MILLER. Cyclic changes in the thyroid and interrenal glands of the viviparous lizard, Xantusia vigilis. Eight figures 19

GEORGE B. WISLOCKI AND EDWARD W. DEMPSEY. Electron microscopy of the placenta of the rat. Seventeen figures 33

C. D. CLEMENTE AND V. L. VAN BREEMEN. Nerve fibers in the area postrema of cat, rabbit, guinea pig and rat. Fifteen figures 65

HOMER B. LATIMER AND PAUL B. SAWIN. Morphogenetic studies of the rabbit. XII. Organ size in relation to body weights in adults of small sized race X. 81

W. GREGORY COOPER. Succinic dehydrogenase activity in the pre-natal and post-natal rat heart. Ten figures 103

MARIETTA VOGE AND HOWARD A. BERN. Cecal villi in Dicrostonyx torquatus (Rodentia: Microtinae). Four figures 125

No. 2 OCTOBER 1955

GEORGE B. WISLOCKI AND EDWARD W. DEMPSEY. Electron microscopy of the human placenta. Twenty figures 133

BENGT KÄLLÉN. Regeneration in the hindbrain of neural tube stages of chick embryos. Six figures 169

L. V. DOMM AND PIERRE LEROY. A method for fetal hypophysectomy by decapitation in the rat. Ten figures 183

R. C. TRUEX, J. C. SCOTT, D. M. LONG AND M. Q. SMYTHE. Effect of vagus nerves on heart rate of young dogs: An anatomic-physiologic study. Fourteen figures 201

PATRICIA F. STEVENS AND SYLVIA H. BENSLEY. Histological studies of the adrenal glands after repeated injections of histamine in albino mice. Six figures 227

W. C. GIBSON, J. R. SMYTHIES, V. A. PURKIS AND G. E. MORRISON, JR. Axon terminals in the normal human cerebrum and cerebellum. Ten figures .. 239

No. 3 NOVEMBER 1955

GORDON M. RAMM AND GORDON E. SWARTZ. The development of the hamster metanephros correlated with general body growth and compared with the metanephroi of other species. Two figures 259

FLAVIA L. RICHARDSON. The relative growth of the mammary glands in normal, ovariectomized and adrenalectomized female mice. Seven figures .. 279

CLARENCE W. WRIGHT. A case of left-sided vermiform appendix, cecum and anomalous colon. Seven figures 291

THOMAS B. ROOS AND RICHARD M. SHACKELFORD. Some observations on the gross anatomy of the genital system and two endocrine organs and body weights in the chinchilla. Four figures 301

JAMES G. WILSON. Teratogenic activity of several azo dyes chemically related to trypan blue. Thirty-four figures 313

H. J. CLAUSEN. An unusual variation in origin of the hepatic and splenic arteries. Two figures 335

MILDRED TROTTER AND ROY R. PETERSON. Ash weight of human skeletons in per cent of their dry, fat-free weight. One figure 341

KATHE B. LIEDKE, MORRIS ENGELMAN AND SAMUEL GRAFF. Inhibitors of amphibian development. Twenty-seven figures 359

No. 4 DECEMBER 1955

EDWARD C. ROOSEN-RUNGE. Quantitative studies on spermatogenesis in the albino rat. III. Volume changes in the cells of the seminiferous tubules. Four figures 385

ARTHUR HESS. The fine structure of young and old spinal ganglia. Seventeen figures 399

MYRON H. HALPERN. The sino-atrial node of the rat heart. Four figures ... 425

NICHOLAS JAMES MIZERES. Isolation of the cardioinhibitory branches of the right vagus nerve in the dog. Three figures 437

HOMER B. LATIMER AND PAUL B. SAWIN. Morphogenetic studies of the rabbit. XIII. The influence of the dwarf gene upon organ size and variability in race X 447

CHIH YE CHANG. Hormonal influences on sex differentiation in the toad, Bufo americanus. Twenty-three figures 467

JOY BURCHAM PHILLIPS AND ALBERT SAUL GORDON. A study of pituitary-thyroid relations in immature rats. Six figures 487

ALBERT KUNTZ AND MERLE W. JACOBS. Components of periarterial extensions of celiac and mesenteric plexuses. Four figures 509

ROBERT E. MCCAFFERTY. A physiological study of the amniotic fluid of the mouse. I. Volume and weight changes of the amniotic fluid compared with the weights of fetus and placenta during gestation. Two figures . 521

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ZOOLOGISTS. Proceedings of the fifty-second annual meeting, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan, September 6, 7, 8, 1955. Constitution, by-laws and list of members 531
